Optimism of Recent Sessions Gives Way Becase of Long Delay of German Answer and Labor Troubles.

New York, April 26.—Much of the ground regained by the market in the early days of the week was relinquished today when professional selling of specialties and some of the more standard stocks was resumed. Among traders, to whom the narrow operations of the day were largely confined, sentiment seemed to undergo reversal of its recent moderate confined, sentiment seemed to discovere the continuous of the cont lings, the movement becoming more heavy us offerings increase. Muni-tions, Mexicans, equipments and sun-dry industrials receded steadily under pressure, selling again concentrating around Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel and Mexican Petroleum.
